

the
GIN
PALACE

A space to relax, unwind and explore some of the best gins and cocktails from around the world.

◇◇◇◇◇◇◇◇◇◇ A History of Gin ◇◇◇◇◇◇◇◇◇◇

Deriving its predominant flavour from juniper berries, gin has long been a favourite with English drinkers. During the Gin Craze, when thousands of gin shops appeared throughout England, gin was blamed for social issues and high death rates, its reputation sealed in William Hogarth's Gin Lane engraving.

As legislation caught up with gin production to produce a safer drink, so too did the gin shops develop. No longer selling gin to take away or drink while standing, these fashionable new establishments of the 1820s were fitted out at great expense and lit by gas lights. These 'perfectly dazzling' gin palaces, as Charles Dickens referred to them, proved hugely popular; and here at the Gin Palace we celebrate this drink in all its glory with a wide selection of the world's best gins, available to drink neat, in cocktails or as the ever-popular gin & tonic.

With several varieties of gins and other spirits stocked, our bartenders can create your perfect cocktail. Here, we highlight just a few of our favourites, but please feel free to order off menu.
